New Year's Day games 1-1-12 1:00 p.m. Cincinnati playing Baltimore Ravens.

From those who went last year to the night game; just get those hand warmers from Wal-Mart and strategically place in gloves, shoes, or shirts to keep warm. Someone said they even put a couple in their pants to sit on and were toasty throughout the entire game.

This package includes seat 1 and 2 just off the 50 yard line, row 16. Also includes is a parking pass in this group only. So get the next two packages, load up the van and head to the New Year's Day Cincinnati game.

Just a suggestion from last year's high bidders....you may want to request off for January 2nd. Start saving now and include this in your Christmas budget to give to that special person in your life. Also accepted is cash, check, or any major credit card. Of course, you may always payroll deduct.

Value: $180.00
